

Explore

FAMILY

Life insurance can help ensure your child and spouse are financially secure.¹

And it's only natural. You are thinking about bringing a new life into the world and you'll want to protect them by protecting you.

Protect

2 The average family will have two kids.²

Your new family is your world. A life insurance policy that's tailored to your new family's needs can help ensure that they are cared for. It's about thinking, planning, and seeing ahead to a protected future.

Grow

3 in 5

families believe that paying for college is a shared responsibility between the parent and child.⁵

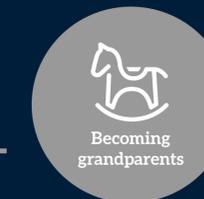

Make sure you've appropriately planned ahead so that your retirement fund doesn't become their college fund.

Secure

By 2030

20% of the population will be over 65 years of age.⁷

Life insurance and estate planning can help ensure your legacy for the ones you love. Talk to your financial professional about the ways Pacific Life can help you leave the legacy you want.

MARRIAGE

The responsibility of shared finances is a key reason people consider life insurance.¹

You find your true love and you want to make sure that you have a plan in place for your loved one should you not be around in the future. Finding a financial professional that can help guide you through all your options is the first step in exploring your financial future.

HOME

Buying a home is one of the top reasons for purchasing life insurance.¹

Owning your own home is an investment. Life insurance means you don't have to leave a financial burden behind.

$42,419

is the average cost to send a child to a private four-year college for one year.³

Making an investment early on can help secure the future you've envisioned. Talk to your financial professional about the ways you can plan ahead.

47% of adults in their 40s and 50s are raising a young child or supporting an adult child.⁴

1 in 7 middle-aged adults is supporting a child and an aging parent.⁴

Support your family and imagine your future with confidence. Talk to your financial professional about the ways Pacific Life can help you achieve financial security.

20% Americans' long-term savings are in cash value life insurance & retirement annuities.⁶

Pacific Life offers a variety of options to help supplement income during retirement.