a last survivor flexible premium variable universal life insurance product.

PACIFIC LIFE

Pacific Life Insurance Company

Form series #P22SVL, S22PLS, varies based on state of policy issue.

A variable universal life insurance policy is primarily purchased to provide death benefit protection. Additionally, owning a variable universal life insurance policy requires decisions about allocating your net premiums and policy cash values among the product's variable investment options and fixed account. Work with your financial professional¹ to determine which option—or combination of options—may be right for you.

1 In order to sell life insurance, a financial professional must be a properly licensed and appointed life insurance producer.

Variable Universal Life Insurance generally requires additional premium payments after the initial premium. If either no premiums are paid, or subsequent premiums are insufficient to continue coverage, it is possible that coverage will expire.

Life insurance is subject to underwriting and approval of the application and will incur monthly policy charges.

Investment and Insurance Products: Not a Deposit	Not Insured by any Federal Government Agency
Not FDIC Insured	No Bank Guarantee	May Lose Value

This brochure provides an overview of the investment options available in Pacific Life's variable universal life insurance product, Pacific Legacy Survivorship VUL.

Each variable investment option² invests in a corresponding portfolio of the DFA Investment Dimensions Group Inc., Fidelity Variable Insurance Products Funds, Neuberger Berman Advisers Management Trust, Pacific Select Fund, or Vanguard Variable Insurance Fund. The portfolios are managed by firms recognized in their particular fields of investment expertise.

There is a greater potential for higher returns through the variable investment options, but your investment is subject to the risk of poor investment performance and can vary depending on the performance of the variable investment options you have chosen. Each variable investment option will have its own unique risks. The value of each variable investment option will fluctuate with the value of the investments it holds, and returns are not guaranteed. You can lose money by investing in the policy, including loss of principal and prior earnings. Therefore, the actual value of any policy distribution can be greater or less than its original cost. You bear the risk of any variable investment options you choose. You should read each Fund prospectus carefully before investing. You can obtain a Fund prospectus by contacting your life insurance producer or by visiting www.pacificlife.com. No assurance can be given that a Fund will achieve its investment objectives.

The fixed account, on the other hand, has guaranteed minimum interest rates, but can earn higher rates based on the company's current declared interest rate. The guarantees associated with the fixed account are subject to Pacific Life's claims-paying ability.

2 Although some funds may have names or investment goals/objectives that resemble retail mutual funds managed by the fund manager, these funds will not have the same underlying holdings or performance as the retail mutual funds.
