Group Term Life Insurance

Pacific Life Group Term Life Insurance provides added financial protection for you and your family, providing peace of mind by helping to cover expenses and loss of income in a time of need.

Three Ways Group Term Life Insurance Protects You

- Covers expenses and lost income: Provides death benefit protection for your family to pay funeral costs and help replace income.
- Provides peace of mind: Gain a sense of security knowing your loved ones will be taken care of in a time of need.
- Leaves a legacy: Gives you the ability to contribute to enduring family goals such as paying off a mortgage or covering college tuition.

What Group Term Life Insurance Covers

With group term life insurance from Pacific Life, you get protection at affordable group rates. Plus, our online automated Evidence of Insurability (EOI) process makes it easier to buy extra life insurance coverage, should you desire, beyond the guaranteed amount your policy provides. The EOI paperless application gives faster results, is often immediate, and usually doesn't require additional medical information.
